Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine announces the

RURAL PUBLIC PSYCHIATRY FELLOWSHIP

A full-time, post-residency training program for physicians who have completed an accredited Psychiatry residency training program

Exciting opportunity to gain in-depth experience in practicing Public Psychiatry in multiple settings, with a primary focus on rural West Alabama

PROGRAM FEATURES:
Comprehensive clinical instruction ▪ Rigorous didactic curriculum including structured, independent readings and academic seminars ▪ Established relationship with rural community mental health center ▪ Teaching and supervision activities ▪ Tele-Psychiatry consultations ▪ Mental health administration ▪ Dedicated research time each week ▪ Support for attendance at selected professional meeting/conference ▪ $70,000 salary + full benefits available

Fellowship term begins July 2010.

Contact for more information:
Marisa A. Giggie, M.D.
Assistant Professor
The University of Alabama
Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine
850 5th Avenue East
Tuscaloosa, AL 35401
(205) 348-4418
magiggie@cchs.ua.edu

The Fellowship is partially supported by funds from Bristol-Myers Squibb. The College of Community Health Sciences is located on the main campus of The University of Alabama (in Tuscaloosa), a comprehensive research institution that offers a wide variety of opportunities for faculty and their families.