Preparation to Be a Rural Physician
A 4-Hour Workshop for Rural Premed Students presented by the
Rural Medical Scholars Program

Saturday, March 3, 2012
10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. [LUNCH provided]

University Medical Center, Ground Floor
University of Alabama College of Community Health Sciences
(corner of University Blvd. and 5th Avenue East)

Tentative Agenda

Why We Need Primary Care Physicians in Rural Alabama
- John Wheat, MD, MPH
  Professor of Community & Rural Medicine
  [http://cchs.ua.edu/crm/rural-health-programs/RMS/]

Rural Medical Scholars Program
- John Brandon, MD, Gordo Family Physician
  and Medical Director, RMSP

Graduate Program in Rural Community Health
- James Leeper, PhD
  Professor of Community & Rural Medicine

How to Finance Medical school
- Financial Aid Office, UA School of Medicine

How to Finance Graduate school
- University of Alabama Financial Aid Office

Panel of Rural Medical Scholars Share Their Experiences
  Rural Community Health in Tuscaloosa • Medical Students (MS1, MS2, MS3, MS4) • Physicians in Residency

To reserve your place (and lunch!), contact:
Cynthia Moore, cmoore@cchs.ua.edu or call (205) 348-5892